

2001: Articles prohibited from importation

Articles prohibited from importation under the Customs Law include the following articles in thirteen categories.

1. Narcotics, psychotropic drugs, cannabis, opium, opium straw, stimulants (including those raw materials) and utensils for smoking opium.
2. Designated Substances (excluding those to be imported for medical use, etc.)
3. Pistols, rifles, machine guns, cannons and their bullets and pistol parts.
4. Explosives
5. Gunpowder, etc.
6. Specified substances prescribed in Paragraph 3, Article 2 of the Law on the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons and Control of Specific Substances
7. Class I pathogen prescribed in Paragraph 22, Article 6 of the Law of the Prevention of the Infectious Disease and the Medical Care for the Patient of the Infectious Disease and Class II pathogen prescribed in Paragraph 23, Article 6 of the law
8. Counterfeited, altered or imitated coins, paper money, bank notes, revenue stamps, postal stamps and securities ; cards encoded with an unlawful electromagnetic record(including those materials)
9. Books, drawings, sculptures and other articles that are considered to injure public safety or morals
10. Child pornography
11. Articles which infringe patent rights, utility model rights, design rights, trademark rights, copyrights and neighboring rights, integrated circuits layout design rights, or plant breeders' rights (excluding 12)
12. Articles that are brought into Japan by an overseas business operator to a domestic non-business operator by mail, etc.
13. Articles which constitute the unfair competition listed in Item 1 through 3, 10, 17 or 18, Paragraph 1, Article 2 of the Unfair Competition Prevention Law (excluding those listed in items 1 through 6, 8 or 10, Paragraph 1, Article 19 of the law)

As for those articles listed in 1 through 8 or 11 through 13, the Director-General of Customs may confiscate and discard them or order the importer to ship them back. (As for those articles supposed to be those listed in 11 through 13, the Director-General of Customs shall take the procedure of determining whether those articles actually fall under the category or not.)

As for those articles considered to be those listed in 9 or 10, the Director-General of Customs shall inform the importer that his/her goods fall under the category.

Also, please pay due attention that there are articles prohibited for import not only under the Customs Law but also under other laws such as the Plant Protection Act and the Act on Domestic Animal Infectious Diseases Control.

(Article 69-11 to 69-20 and Article 70 of the Customs Law)

For further information on the goods above and border enforcement by Japan Customs, please refer to the website below.

<https://www.customs.go.jp/mizugiwa/kinshi.htm>